

Note to Authors of UNU-MERIT Working Papers.

The aim of the UNU-MERIT Working Papers is to generate interest and response to the ideas published. These should be of high quality and in line with the institutes research aims and support the research policies outlined in the Research and Policy Context.

The maximum size of the submitted paper is ca. 50 pages.

In support of the diffusion of the research output of the institute we distribute our research to several repositories. For this we use metadata files which are used by these repositories.

We would like to ask you as authors to include, as a standard, the follow items in the title page(s) you submit to UNU-MERIT for inclusion in the Working Papers:

- Title
- Author(s): Full names of all authors (full given- and surname, no initials)
- Abstract: maximum of 300 words
- E-mail address: please provide an e-mail address for each author
- Affiliation: please provide at least one affiliation for each author
- JEL Classification codes: please provide at least one JEL code, at the double digit level, eg. O33
See: http://www.aeaweb.org/jel/jel_class_system.php
- Keywords: please provide at least 3 keywords
- Maximum size paper: ca. 50 pages
- Language: Oxford English

The correct inclusion of the above will facilitate a speedy inclusion of your work in the working paper series and in the leading repositories on Economics, on the Web.

The UNU-MERIT Working Paper series is 100% Open Access. Once released into the public domain, papers cannot be withdrawn.

Although copyright rests primarily with the author, or authors, of the work, it should be noted that by publishing the work in the UNU-MERIT Working Paper series the author, or authors, consent to publishing the aforementioned work under the Creative Commons BY-NC-SA license for open access publishing. This means that all work published in the UNU-MERIT Working Papers series can be freely shared and adapted under the following terms:

- Attribution — Appropriate credit must be given, provide a link to the license, and indicate if changes were made. You may do so in any reasonable manner, but not in any way that suggests the licensor endorses you or your use.
- NonCommercial — The material may not be used for commercial purposes.
- ShareAlike — If you remix, transform, or build upon the material, you must distribute your contributions under the same license as the original.

No additional restrictions apply and the license prohibits application of effective technological measures, defined with reference to Article 11 of the WIPO Copyright Treaty.